Protesters demand medical college in New Tehri; markets shut

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

NEW TEHRI (UTTARAKHAND), JULY 31: A large number of people staged a protest in Uttarakhand's New Tehri on Friday to demand the establishment of a medical college in the town, with markets in several areas remaining shut during the agitation. The protesters alleged that State Health Minister DrSubodhUniyal is opposing the establishment of the medical college in New Tehri and wants it to be set up in his own constituency, Narendra Nagar. Apart from New Tehri, markets in the surrounding areas, including Baurari, Bhagirathipuram, and Koti Colony, also remained shut.

Since morning, large crowds gathered at various locations holding placards and raising slogans in support of the demand.

The agitation also received support from Tehri MLA (BJP) Kishore Upadhyay, who has been advocating for the establishment of a medical college for the past two decades. "Funds are not an issue for establishing the medical college in New Tehri. We have already received assurances of support from power generation companies like THDC Limited. I have also apprised the Chief Minister (Pushkar Singh Dhami) regarding this matter," Upadhyay said. He claimed that the Detailed Project Report (DPR) for the proposed medical college – to be built on 100 acres of land in the Iniya area – has already been prepared. The MLA said the proposed medical college would also have a 400-bed hospital. Upadhyay added that he would soon request financial assistance for the project from the public sector oil and gas company ONGC under its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) scheme. Rakesh Bhushan Godiyal, convener of the Tehri Medical College Construction Struggle Committee, said, "The medical college should be established only in New Tehri, as it is the central location for the entire Tehri district."
