Joint Tiranga Rally Organized Under Har
Ghar Tiranga Campaign

The Assam Rising, Hojai, 14 August : As part of the “Har Ghar Tiranga” Campaign-2026, a grand Joint Tiranga Rally was organized on Friday under the joint aegis of the Assam Police, Forest Department, and “G” Company, Hojai, 1st Battalion, Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB), Sonapur. The rally commenced from Hojai Police Station and proceeded to Hojai Sports Stadium. The primary objective of the rally was to strengthen the spirit of patriotism, national unity and integrity among the general public, promote respect for the National Flag, and create greater public awareness about the “Har Ghar Tiranga” Campaign. Hojai District Commissioner Shri Sanjoy Dutta (ACS), Superintendent of Police

Shri Nirupam Hazarika (APS), Additional Superintendent of Police (Crime) Shri Vaibhav Rawat, Additional Superintendent of Police (Headquarters) Shri Rupam Bordoloi, DSP Smt. Bhashwati Choudhury, Officers-in-Charge of various Police Stations, Inspector Mukesh Kumar Meena, Company Commander of “G” Company, 1st Battalion SSB, Hojai, and

Forest Department Ranger Shri Nayan Jyoti Rajbongshi, along with officers and personnel of the Police, SSB, Forest Department and other supporting agencies, participated enthusiastically in the rally. During the rally, SSB personnel and participants carried the Tricolour in their hands and conveyed the message of national unity, integrity and patriotism. Awareness regarding the “Har Ghar Tiranga” Campaign was spread throughout the route, and citizens were encouraged to hoist the National Flag at their homes and actively participate in the campaign. The Joint Tiranga Rally conveyed a strong message of coordination and cooperation among the security forces, police, Forest Department and the general public, further strengthening the spirit of national unity. The programme concluded successfully in an atmosphere filled with enthusiasm, patriotism and pride in the National Flag.

Message of the Tricolour at every home: Enthusiastic Tricolour journey
under ASRLM at Titabar

The Assam Rising, Titabar, August 14 : Ahead of the country's 79th Independence Day on 15 August, a huge 'Tricolour Rally' was organised on 11 August in the Titabar development block with the aim of successfully promoting the Centre's 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign at the grassroots level. The campaign was launched by the central government to popularize the initiative at every household. The Tricolour Rally was officially inaugurated in the presence of Sakhi and officials of the Titabar Development Block's 'Block Mission Management Unit' (BMMU), along with the Block Development Officer of Titabar Shikhamani Gogoi. Full of enthusiasm the officers and Sakhi of the Assam State Rural Livelihood Mission in Titabar carried the national flag and marched in the Tricolour rally chanting 'Bharat Mata Ki Jai' and 'Vande Mataram' as the Titabar development block's headquarters and surrounding roads came alive with the sounds of patriotic fervor. Shikhamani Gogoi, BDO of Titabar Development Block inaugurated the Tricolour journey saying, "The main message of this campaign is that every citizen should hoist the national flag at their home with pride. Through this, we need to reflect unity, patriotism and our collective responsibility towards the nation." The officials of Assam State Rural Livelihood Mission have urged the public to hoist the tricolor at every home and at government and non-government institutions from August 13 to August 15. It is worth mentioning that the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign is not just a program; it is an effort to honor the sacrifices of the freedom fighters of the country. The local people have commented that this Tiranga journey in Titabar spreads the message of patriotism across the entire Titabar region through the friends of the Assam State Rural Livelihood Mission. In addition to recognize this initiative Kumud Ch Kachari the Chief Executive Member of the Thengal Kachari Autonomous Council, Assam, Sr. Journalist-Writer Prosenjit Rajkhowa in Titabar and member of Assam's leading news organisation 'Dainandin Barta Group,' associated with 'Dainandin Barta,' the English daily 'The Assam Rising,' 'Asomiya Khabar,' and electronic media such as 'DB News,' 'UA News,' 'News Now,' 'Asom Kontho,' prominent educator Dr. Buddhindra Nath Saikia, Dr. Dibyashree Saikia director of 'Madhu Dibya Foundation,' along with various individuals, institutions and organisation's have welcomed it.

'Drug-Free Youth, Developed India' programme held at Krishna Bora B Ed College

The Assam Rising, Nagaon , August 14 : A day-long district-level programme titled 'Drug-Free Youth, Developed India' was organised at Lanka Krishna Bora B Ed College by the Hojai District My Bharat Centre today. The event was held as part of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's special appeal to create awareness among the youth against substance abuse and to build a drug-free India. The programme began with lighting of lamps in memory of late artist Zubeen Garg. Dr Mostafizur Rahman, Principal of the college, formally inaugurated the competitions and urged students to play an active role in building a drug-free society and nation. Competitions including debate, painting, group dance, slogan writing, poetry recitation, street play, music and reel-making were held. Around 200 students from various institutions of the district participated. Prizes were distributed by Dr Mostafizur Rahman, Dr Tara Shankar Debnath, Dhananjay Talukdar, District Coordinator of My Bharat Centre Nagaon & Morigaon, MSW Coordinator of Nagaon University Randip Nandi, dance trainer Tapan Bhattacharjee, and others. The programme was anchored by resource person Abu Sadique Kabir of My Bharat Centre.

The Assam Rising, Guwahati, August 14 : The Assam Christian Forum has welcomed the decision of the Government of India to refer the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Amendment Bill, 2026 to a Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) for detailed examination. Assamnews updatesIn a statement, the Forum said the decision would allow wider consultation and discussion on the proposed legislation. The Forum said the move reflected the government's willingness to consider concerns raised by NGOs, minority communities and other civil society groups. It said it looked forward to engaging with the Ministry of Home Affairs and the JPC during the examination of the Bill. The Forum said it is involved in education, healthcare, social development and charitable initiatives in Assam and remains committed to contributing to the country's development. It also said it was ready to engage in dialogue and cooperation to help develop a legal framework that ensures natural justice while allowing genuine civil society organisations to continue their work. The Assam Christian Forum reaffirmed its commitment to transparency, accountability and engagement with the government and other stakeholders. Assamnews updatesThe Forum also expressed hope that the JPC's deliberations would be guided by fairness, wisdom and the common good. The statement was issued by Allen Brooks, spokesperson for the Assam Christian Forum.
